

Reviews for Casanuova delle Cerbaie Brunello di Montalcino 2004

WINE ADVOCATE ISSUE 183 JUNE 2009

“Casanuova delle Cerbaie’s 2004 Brunello di Montalcino is gorgeous in this vintage. A firm, structured, Brunello, it offers up attractive scents of smoke, grilled herbs, (French oak) and leather. Today the wine comes across as needing bottle age, as the elements aren’t quite woven together as finely as they will be with some time. Still, there is a lovely persistence and depth to this wine that augurs well for the future. Anticipated maturity: 2012-2022.....Casanuova delle Cerbaie was purchased in early 2008 by American collector and investor Roy Welland, who is probably best known in wine circles for his New York restaurant Cru, which is also home to one of the world’s most breathtaking winelists. Welland and his team, which includes the talented Robert Bohr, are still in the process of making major improvements to the winery. Given the naturally slow pace of these operations, it will take at least a vintage or two before the results start showing up in the wines. No expense is being spared, and it will be fascinating to see where the wines go from here....92” Antonio Galloni, Wine Advocate Issue 183, June 2009

AUGUST 2009 ISSUE OF DECANTER MAGAZINE

Decanter PANEL TASTING

Brunello di Montalcino 2004

RECOMMENDED ★★★			Drinkability	Stockist	Mean score
Wine name	Price	Tasting note
Casanuova delle Cerbaie	N/A UK	‘Good extraction. Elegantly made, fruit and tannins in balance. A touch of vanilla and enough complexity to improve. From 2010.’ (SS)		www.casanuova adellecerbaie.com	15